JUSTICE - BUT WHEN?

The average citizen has confidence in the over-all justice as dispensed in our courts, even though personal involvement may temporarily cloud judgment of an individual.

However, whenever a case is appealed, decisions come so late that "justice" as finally decided, is a hollow advantage, and actually defeats justice by its untimeliness.

To remedy this, three years ago District Appellate Courts were authorized, and have speeded up decisions on 4,286 cases of $,389 filed. The dockets are crowded, however, and some further relief must be had.

This relief is provided in proposed amendment No. 1 to the constitution to be voted on in coming general election of November 8th, providing for additional judges on the court of Appeals. It's estimated cost to you and me is $56 per year - a small price for more effective justice.

A vote of "Yes" is an exercise of your constitutional prerogative of passing on any basic change in the judiciary.

This proposal for speedier justice is in line with the record of growth of our state, and the predicted continuance of this growth.

FRIGHTENING PROSPECT

An editorial in Editor & Publisher deals with a recent "one-big-union" proposal.

This one would have for its purpose the domination of the newspaper business. The union would be made up of the Guild, the typographical workers-and, of great significance, the paper makers. One advocate of the union is $56 per year. "Control of the paper supply is essential in battling against unified management."

This caused Editor & Publisher to say: "In other words, the 'one-big-union' contemplates bringing a publisher to his knees in any union dispute simply by cutting off his paper supply . . .

"Such a prospect is frightening for the free press of this country. Freedom would be a thing of the past. These union leaders seem to want the right and freedom to publish subject to their own control which it would be if all newspaper and newsprint workers are lumped into one assembly-line type of union."

People who work for newspapers have every right to join together in seeking higher wages or better working conditions or any other such goal, just as the people who work for other enterprises have that right. But it is a far cry from this to a super-union which would have the power to tell a publisher to accept its demands-or go out of business for want of paper.

Columnist Sylvia Porter writes: "Of every $100 of goods you'll be buying only three years from now, at least $12 will go for products not even being made today . . . for absolutely new things or products so changed that they reasonably can be called new."

When, How, Why It "Ticks" For Us!

Q. How did the Belle Glade Memorial Hospital first come into being?

A. The Belle Glade Hospital was formerly a Federal hospital for migrants. In 1949 the land building and facilities were transferred to a body created by an act of the state legislature, the body being designated as "Southwestern Palm Beach County Hospital Board." This was done for the purpose of providing hospital facilities for the southwestern portion of Palm Beach County which Belle Glade, South Bay and Lake Harbor were a part.

Q. Is it a private or public hospital?

A. It is a public hospital.

Q. Who has the primary responsibility for operating the hospital?

A. A Board of Governors originally consisting of five members, but now increased to seven members.

Q. Who are the present board members?

A. Herman L. Close, Board Chairman, Teacher in Public Schools; Robert Goodman, Owner of Roadman Furniture Co., South Bay; C. A. Thomas, Farmer, Lake Harbor, Florida; Milton Barry, Co-owner Agriculture Insurance Co.; Richard A. Pustan, Manager and Vice-president Everglades Federal Savings and Loan; Mrs. Abby Zumpf, Register Nurse; Vacancy (late Herbert Beck, attorney).

Q. How are they appointed?

A. By the Governor of the State.

Q. How long do they serve?

A. One, two and three year terms.

Q. Do they receive any compensation?

A. They serve without compensation as a community service.

Q. How do they carry out their responsibilities?

A. They devote their time and ability to formulating policy for the operation and maintenance of the hospital. Most are to be commended upon their place. This book is one of the finest novels we have ever read. It is a privilege to comment upon it. Place Holland, Time, spring, 1946. Out of a teaming crowd, in this dramatic moment of history, emerge two leading characters, Peter Jorgensen, a middle-aged Dutch Inspector of the Criminal Investigation Division, and Anna Held, a young Jewish girl, just freed from concentration camp. Almost before they realize they are joined in a strange pursuit, a weird and fascinating

Q. What are the responsibilities of an administrator?

A. He interprets and executes the policies of the board. He is much like the President of a corporation. He employs competent personnel for the proper operation of the hospital in all its functions. Through supervisory efforts he maintains a high standard of services and within limitations secures modern and efficient equipment.

Q. What are the main functions of a hospital?

A. The main function of a hospital is to provide facilities, equipment and trained personnel for those requiring medical or surgical treatment.

Q. What is the relationship between the medical staff and the hospital?

A. Your doctors and physicians form the medical staff and have been extended the privilege of admitting patients to the hospital where they are assured patients will receive professional care 24 hours a day that would be difficult or impossible to obtain elsewhere.

Q. What is the nursing staff?

A. The nursing staff are those that through long training have received professional degree in the care of the sick. They supervise and are assisted by aides, student nurses, orderlies, etc., in carrying out their responsibilities.

Q. What is the relationship between the nursing staff and the hospital?

A. The nursing staff is employed by the hospital and is under the supervision of the administrator.

Q. Is this a charitable organization?

A. It is not a charitable organization, however the board of governors have the ability to have levied a tax to pay the cost of rendering this service to welfare and indigent cases that are always found in any community.

Q. Who benefits from the profits of the hospital?

A. The profits of the institution do not benefit any individual or group of individuals, but are used to improve the services and facilities for the benefit of the entire community.

Q. Do I have to pay in advance upon admittance?

A. If you do not have hospitalization insurance it is usually required that you put up a deposit to cover the expected service.

Q. How may I be admitted as a patient?

A. You may be admitted only by your physician privileged to use of the hospital or in case of emergencies by the house physician on duty at the time of admittance.

Q. Should I bring my hospitalization insurance policy with me when I'm admitted?

A. It is extremely important that you bring your hospital insurance policy with you at the time of admittance.

Q. Will it pay for all my hospital expenses?

A. This varies with each insurance company and often with different policies of the same company. It is reasonable to assume that most, but not all of the cost will be paid by the insurance company.

Q. Are the doctors fees included in the hospital charges.

A. Your doctor's fees are never included in the hospital charges.

Q. Should a close relative accompany me to the hospital if I'm too ill to attend to the necessary details of admittance.

A. Yes, you should have a close relative or friend capable of acting for you at admittance.

Look To Your Loans

World War II Veterans have two more years in which to obtain Veterans Administration Guaranteed Home, Farm and Business Loans as the result of a Bill signed into law July 14, 1960 by the President.

Under this same law, both World War II and Korean Conflict veterans can continue to apply for direct loans from the Federal Government if they live in designated rural areas where GI Loans are not obtainable from the local lending institutions.

The new law authorizes Treasury Department advances of $150 million in each of the next two years of this Direct Loan Extension Program. New expiration date for the Guaranteed Loan Program for World War II Veterans and for the Direct Loan Program for both World War II and Korean Veterans is July 25, 1962. The prior deadline for both programs was July 25, 1960.

While both World War II and Korean veterans may now apply for direct loans through July 25, 1962, Korean veterans may continue to seek VA-Guaranteed Loans through January 31, 1965, through previous legislation.

The GI Loan interest rate of 5 1/2 percent remains unchanged by the new law.

Another provision will allow the VA to guarantee a loan so long as the application is received prior to the new terminal date. Formerly, the law provided VA had one year in which to issue the guarantee.

This amendment will allow the guaranty of loans submitted before the terminal date when because of title problems, delays in construction, or other reasons the loan cannot be completed within one year.

Our Library

"One of our greatest needs today," Garth Cate, nationally known travel and resort writer states, "is to get our young folks and millions of parents to know that BOOKS aren't just paper and ink, that books are the living embodiment of the best, most exciting, explosive, entertaining, revealing, amusing and useful thinking, not only of our time but of the past."

This week Mrs. Ruth Clemen, member of the library has chosen two fine novels that will surely please most of our readers: The Inspector by Jan D. Hartog. This book is one of the finest novels we have ever read. It is a privilege to comment upon it. Place Holland, Time, spring, 1946. Out of a teaming crowd, in this dramatic moment of history, emerge two leading characters, Peter Jorgensen, a middle-aged Dutch Inspector of the Criminal Investigation Division, and Anna Held, a young Jewish girl, just freed from concentration camp. Journey. From the ruins of London, along the rivers of Holland and canals of France, to the Casbah of Tangiers, their destination, Palestine. Here is a novel which becomes an illuminating spiritual experience.

The Yankee From Tennessee by Noel G. Gerson. This being a presidential year, a political year, let us look back on a political situation of a little over a hundred years ago. This author tells of a moving biographical story of a controversial yet strong and sincere man that was Andrew Johnson. For many decades he was forgotten because of his reputation, but fortunately for his reputation, he lived in the shadow of the greatest American of the nineteenth century, Abraham Lincoln - and assuming the presidency, tried faithfully to carry out Lincoln's plans and policies. Johnson finally emerges as a man of considerable stature in his own right.

Legion Convention Visitors Welcomed

Four days — the 12th through 15th — Glades Legionnaires will host convention visitors passing through to interrupt the trip long enough to say "Hello" and secure whatever information they may need about the National Convention to be held in Miami Beach, October 15th through the 20th.

The welcome station will be located just east of Cone's paint store, according to J. B. Jones, a member of the National Convention Committee, who is completing arrangements with local legionnaires and city officials.

Both presidential candidates are on the list of national figures who will address the convention. J. Edgar Hoover a man highly respected by all legionnaires will talk to the boys.

Burke, chief of Naval Operations, Gen. Greutner, President of Red Cross, Gen. Curtis LeMay, and many other high ranking military figures.

The big parade on Monday the 17th estimated to take eight hours to pass a given point, will feature 20% of its make-up service units. A space vehicle more than 100 feet high will be among the weapons on display in the parade.

The public is asked to lend a hand during these four days by taking the time to shake hands and give a word of welcome to any of our passing-through visitors.

Thirty thousand or more, of the more than 100 thousand visitors expected at Miami Beach, will likely pass through the Glades, and the least we can do is stay long enough to say WELCOME.

recognition. The old theory that "The husband and wife are one and that one is the husband," was difficult to put assunder. "The strong tendency toward the history of the US has been toward a gradual disappearance of the disabilities and protections enjoyed by women largely thru the united efforts of a few groups of women who were determined and ambitious enough to battle for their rights. These rights were not gained fast, nor without the reluctance from the male sex who had to pass on all these laws," Mrs. Nash told the group.

Today any and every field of business, industry, finance and education are open to women — the only requisite for a woman to be president of the United States is the will to win, she reminded them.

Eight of the "Woman of the Month" candidates were present and were recognized. Corvases of yellow mums and ribbons, the club colors were presented from the male sex by Rodgers and Mrs. Kathleen Livingston.

A social hour followed with refreshments of cake and punch served by the hostesses Mrs. Janita Croft, Mrs. Walter Ashby and Mrs. Frank Morris.

Reservations were made for the BPW breakfast to be held Sunday morning at 8:30 which will complete the week's activities. At that time the "Woman of the Year" will be revealed.

BPW Women were cordially invited to attend the Oct. 12th meeting of the Lion Club when Paul Rogers will be the guest speaker. Reservations must be in by the 10th.

Despite High Wages And Bureaucrats Fla. Sugar Producers "Doing Alrite"

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Vice President Boy of U. S. Sugar made a talk to Rotarians recently about sugar that reflects study and knowledge of the present situation from experts. We believe it in the interest of this community particularly to print the entire talk. This is the second of three installments.)

Now that we have seen what has happened in the way of sugar legislation, let us take a look at the present sugar situation and the events that led up to it.

The initial consumptive estimate made by the U. S. Sugar, this incidentally, was a reasonable estimate as it is expected the United States consumption for this year will be in the neighborhood of 9,300,000 tons.

On July 6, immediately upon signing the Sugar Act extension into law, the President issued a proclamation setting Cuba's quota for this year at 214,655 tons — a cut of 700,000 tons from her quota under the 1940, 400,000 ton estimate.

During the next four weeks, the Department of Agriculture issued a number of directives—some of which were most confusing to those of us in the sugar industry. The President had apparently given the Department of State a "say" in the re-allocation of the Cuban cut, and this probably accounted for some of the confusing directives that came forth. The first thing the Department of Agriculture did was to increase the consumptive estimate to 9,600,000 tons. This added about 140,000 tons of sugar that could be marketed in the United States.

Cuba would have gotten some 58,000 tons of additional quota, and Cuba's cut would have been a total of over 759,000 tons. Next, the Secretary of Agriculture issued a number of directives—some of which were most confusing to those of us in the sugar industry. Louisiana are barely breaking even. Many in Puerto Rico are losing money. We recently visited Puerto Rico to investigate the possibility of buying a used sugar mill. We found three for sale, each now operating, but all losing money. And their owners were anxious to sell the complete factories.

The cane sugar refiners who set the price of refined sugar have taken care of themselves. The refiners' margin — that is the difference between the price of refined sugar and of raw sugar — has increased about 75 percent in the past ten years. The domestic beet industry is doing all right, as all beet sugar cattle in Palm Beach County.

There are 110,000 beef cattle in Palm Beach County.

I am pleased to say that we, here in Florida, are doing all right. The fact that we are prospering, despite being caught in the same squeeze as the rest of the cane sugar industry, is due to the unwavering faith and determination of one man — Mr. G. S. Mott, of Plant, Miami, Chairman of the Board of United States Sugar Corporation.

flameless electric cooking
 is the modern way for a modern day

CLEANER! Flameless electricity won't scald pots and pans nor produce soot and greasy film to dirty your kitchen walls and curtains.

COOLER! Flameless electric cooking keeps the kitchen 5 to 15 degrees cooler than flame-type units which emit heat along with soot and other products of combustion.

SAFER! Electric ranges automatically provide exactly measured heat at fingertip control.

SAVER! Electricity is flame-free, flameless for preheating pans of metal. No danger from open flames. No constant-burning pilot light. Such as an electric light bulb.

BETTER! Flameless electric cooking preserves food color, flavor and healthful minerals. Vitamins aren't "boiled away."

CHEAPER! The operating cost of a modern electric range is about a penny a meal per person. Sometimes Service electricity is the biggest bargain in town.

I wish to express my deep appreciation to everyone who remembered me and the family in our hour of sorrow in the loss of my beloved father who passed away Sept. 29 at a Pittsburgh Hospital. The parting was sad but I thank God he was relieved of his terrible pain and illness.

Landscape Design For Fla. Gardeners

Monday Thru Wed.

The third of a series of schools on Landscape Design sponsored by the Fla. Federation of Garden Clubs will be held at the University of Miami next Monday through Wednesday Oct. 11-12 in Westminister Chapel Coral Gables.

The school is open to any garden club member for the small fee of $10, plus $1 for the examination, and application should be made to Mrs. Frank Steelman, 4309 S.W. 4th Street, Miami, 44, Fla.

The list of instructors and lecturers include many who are of the landscape architecture profession, and many who are practicing everyday in parks.

In addition to the effort to develop greater love and appreciation of nature's bounty to Floridians, it is pointed out that completion of the series of courses will entitle the participants to receive National Council of State Garden Clubs' Appraisers Certificate.

Major General Mark W. Lance, the Adjutant General of Florida, announced today that a state-wide practice alert for all Florida National Guard troops, both Army and Air will be called before the end of the year. General Lance said "In calling a state-wide practice alert, the effectiveness of our plans for immediate mobilization to aid our State or Nation in time of emergency or national disaster will be evaluated. In the trying times that exist today, we must be assured of the readiness of the National Guard."

The practice alert will come without warning, General Lance went on to say and should be called during normal day-time work hours, the cooperation of employers in permitting guardsmen to report to their units will materially assist in the evaluation.

The call alerting the Florida National Guard will originate in the headquarters of the State Military Department in St. Augustine. Responsible officers in the headquarters emphasize that the date and time for the alert are not known, and that they are sure only that it will come sometime between the end of this year. They further stated that this alert would test the effectiveness of the plans, both civilian and military, and including radio nets, in assembling troops. Neither Civilian Defense personnel nor Reserve Forces will be affected by the test.

Aspey Tells Rotary Of Our 50th State

Clarence Aspey's recitals of his impressions and his description of the Ways and Means of the many side trips he and Grace took are as interesting to Rotarians recently as the very good color slides.

Our fiftieth state, and the mingling of religions and ideas of democracy of the white, the yellow and the polynesian, as demonstrated in its business and affairs of government were very impressive, to the Aspeys.

A combination of ground travel by auto, through the air by jet to the west coast and on to Honolulu, by luxury ship over the water made use of modern transportation. Then came taxi and bus and short plane hops to see the wonders of the tropical country.

A jet to the homeland and luxury bus to sights of our own west, did not dispel the urge to set foot on the muck again.

Mr. Kaiser has made a very attractive swimming pool of the beach at Waikiki, but Clarence has one at home that doesn't need a bulldozer to rework following high tide; the palms and shrubbery are most attractive, but Grace has those in her yard; the orchids do grow more prolifically, though the Aspeys have varieties growing in their yard; Sugar cane, yes, but we have that here; pineapples, YES, just gobs and gobs of them.

Folks, yes, and they're most hospitable and gracious and make you really feel welcome! It's a wonderful trip, yes, but we're glad to see the black soil again, says Clarence.

So. Bell Begins Service Survey Locally

Every telephone customer in Belle Glade and South Bay will receive a post card from the telephone company in the next few weeks, asking for his comments and criticisms relative to his telephone service and the company that provides it, according to Bob Lee, Manager for Southern Bell here.

Lee calls the project a post card canvass. "In making the canvass, we'll mail a double post card to each customer. The cards were mailed starting Tuesday, so people starting receiving them about Wednesday or Thursday. We hope that everyone will take a minute to fill out the return half of the card and mail it to us."

"We're not necessarily seeking compliments. If any of our customers have criticisms, we want to know about them. Comments like these help us give our customers the kind of service they want."

"Our next important job is giving our customers the kind of service they desire. We'll contact all replies favorable or unfavorable and make every effort to clear up all sources of dissatisfaction."

THE '61 PONTIAC IS OUT TODAY!

It's All Pontiac!
on a new Wide-Track!

New track-to-body proportion! The track is the width between the wheels. Pontiac is the only Wide-Track car. Body width is reduced, shaving side overhang, balancing more weight between the wheels. Best relationship of body width to wheel width ever tailored. Lean and s-vay are ancient history.

Announcing the new Pontiac Trophy V-8 Engine! We've improved the engine the experts said was perfect. New fuel induction system saves gas by using more air in the gasoline mixture. This makes the engine breathe more efficiently, giving you better acceleration. Eleven versions to choose from. Horsepower's range from 215 to 348. For most economy, specify the Trophy Economy V-8. Its lower compression ratio lets you use regular gas.

More headroom, legroom, footroom for greater comfort! You'll take great comfort in the extra roominess we've built into the '61 Pontiac. Seats are higher, yet there's more clearance beneath the steering wheel and more headroom over your head. There is more legroom, more footroom. Doors are wider and designed to swing open farther. The more highway you put behind you (Pontiac specializes in this) the more you'll appreciate the new room that's all around you in this sleek new '61.

THE ONLY WIDE-TRACK CAR! Body width trimmed to reduce side overhang. More weight balanced between the wheels. No other car hugs the road with such sure-balanced, stability and precision.

The 1961 Ford Galaxie Club Victoria, a new model in the Ford line that will be introduced to the public on September 29, features styling that has been called "a new classic beauty." The new Ford is nearly four inches shorter and two inches narrower for greater maneuverability, and introduces 30,000-mile lubrication. Other engineering features include self-adjusting brakes, double-wrapped aluminum muffler, longer-lasting bright trim and underbody parts, and a 4,000-mile oil change interval.

A new optional 390-cubic-inch high performance engine also is available.

The 1961 Ford features crisp styling, new dimensions for station wagon. All six station wagon models, from the two-door Ranch wagon to the nine-passenger, four-door Country Squire with simulated wood paneling, have a new roll-over rear window in the tailgate. The tailgate itself is seven inches wider than in 1960. The front-facing third seat in nine-passenger station wagons has been improved and, when not in use, folds upward into the floor.

A power operated rear window is standard on the Country Squire models and the 9-passenger Country Sedan and optional station wagon.

Ford introduces a new 390-cubic inch Thunderbird Special V-8 engine in 1961 that is designed for effortless performance. The Thunderbird 392 Special and the Thunderbird 292 V-8, as well as the Mileage Maker Six, all are designed to deliver greater economy on regular grade fuels.

Ford has improved all four transmissions for 1961 — the manual, overdrive, two-speed Fordomatic and dual-range Cruise-O-Matic. The Cruise-O-Matic transmission is equipped with a new vacuum control throttle valve linkage, which provides smoother, more precise shifting than before, and elimination of periodic adjustment.

The shorter, narrower dimensions "dog-leg," the 1961 Ford result in greater parking ease and maneuverability.

Inside, the passenger seating space offers the same "built for people" comfort present in the 1960 Ford. Comfort and convenience, like quality and durability, were designed into the new car. Front seat passengers will continue to enjoy foam-padded seats and easy entry and exit with the sweepback windshield pillars which eliminate side pillars.

The extended lubrication interval, will mean fewer service stops and more savings with the new Ford.

The new Ford line, to be introduced by Ford dealers today consists of 10 models in four series — Fairlane, Fairlane 500, Galaxie and station wagons. Added to the line are two new models — a Galaxie Club Victoria (two-door hardtop) and a

"These features," Mr. Wright said, "combined with Ford's Diamond Lustre finishes that never need waxing and the Full-Flow oil filtering system that permits a 4,000-mile oil change interval, will mean fewer service stops and more savings with the new Ford."

1961 Chevrolet Trucks Feature Proved Design

Continuation of the highly successful suspension system introduced last year, moderate front style changes, and refinements in chassis and cab mark the 1961 Chevrolet truck line. Proved by one full year of customer use, the suspension features independent front springing with torsion bars and rear coil or variable rate springs. Coil suspension is included on a smaller floor mount in some models for increased leg and foot room, and an optional six-inch thick rubber seat.

Refinements in the highly successful chassis design introduced a year ago, further expansion of models, and styling identification changes mark the Chevrolet truck line for 1961.
The wide acceptance of our 1960 chassis redesign, featuring independent front suspension with torsion bar springing and significant innovations in rear suspensions, confirms our conviction that truck owners approve extensive design changes which translate into economic benefits for them," James E. Conlan, assistant general sales manager for Chevrolet trucks, said.
Included in the 1961 line are three new 4-wheel drive models for light-duty, maximum traction application. The 127-inch wheelbase, 1/2 ton vehicles are available as cab-chassis, wide-body pickup and conventional box pickup models rated from 4900 to 5600 pounds gross vehicle weight.
All Chevrolet 4-wheel drive units for 1961 feature a new warmup, and increased economy result from a new, optional temperature-controls hydraulic fan drive for light-duty models with the 175 engine. The fan is disengaged unless it is actually required by radiator air temperature.
On all 1961 regular production truck engines, high resistance type spark plug wires and a coil secondary wire suppress radio interference in the vehicle itself as well as in nearby vehicles and in adjacent homes. Longer spark plug life also results from the new wiring.
Among modifications made late in the 1960 model run are certain models and now incorporated across the entire line are: Revisions in heaters to provide cab temperatures up to 10 degrees warmer at normal operation speeds; increased capacity torsion bars for most medium and heavy-duty trucks for normal, severe, and extra-severe service; new optional heavy-duty 12-leaf per springs with ground capacity of 19,500 lbs. The Pre-School Child Needs Eyecare, Too

Many a child has visual troubles which should be dealt with even before he reaches school age, according to the Better Vision Institute. Some conditions will cause serious and permanent handicaps unless they are attacked very early in life.

One rather common difficulty is known as amblyopia. This occurs when a child's two eyes do not work together properly as a team, in binocular vision, and consequently he forms the habit of using only the eye which is stronger. If the weaker eye is not used, it grows dim-sighted from disuse.

Images are formed on the retina of his two eyes because one has a visual error and the other doesn't. Or it may be that a cross-eyed condition produces blurred and overlapping images. In any case, the child's vision is a serious disorder which is quite widespread. Almost five percent of all American men of military age are handicapped by poor vision in one eye, and 66 percent of these have amblyopia.

Successful correction of amblyopia depends upon the age of the patient and how long it is permitted to persist. Unless it's detected and combated before the age of seven, the child will probably never have binocular vision. If any refractive errors, such as nearsightedness or farsightedness, are present, they should be corrected at once by glasses. Then it may be advisable to close the better eye so that the weaker eye is forced to work. Visual training and surgery are other methods which are sometimes required. In any case, the sooner steps are taken the better are the chances of developing normal vision.

Even when amblyopia doesn't exist, any pronounced refractive error should be corrected promptly to avoid eyestrain as well as poor vision. And congenital cataracts, congenital glaucoma, tumors of the eye, demand immediate attention.

The interest of safety, every child should have an eyesight examination at the age of three or four, and those with obvious troubles should be taken to vision specialists sooner than that.

Parents who put off caring for their children's vision until the school years may find that they can never make up for the delay.

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

HOW YOU CAN HAVE PERFECT SOUNDNESS

Perfect soundness is the desire and goal of every one of us. We want perfect soundness in soul, mind and body. And thanks to God, this perfect soundness is within the reach of all—if we will only use our faith and believe.

The New Testament cites many instances in which Jesus Christ of Nazareth made people perfectly sound. A good example of Christ's complete healing power was the lame man outside the temple gate (Acts 3:7-8). "And immediately, his feet and ankle bones received strength. And he leaping up, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God."

A miracle of healing—then at today—was something that was seen and felt. A modern-day healing from God opens up a person's heart showing him just how powerful faith can be. Just as in Bible times when certain men doubted, today some doubt the power of God to heal when no evidence is apparent. People want to see what faith will do, and when it comes, it is something people can see and feel. They want evidence and they have a right to know that Jesus is alive and real. Every healing wrought in the name of Jesus, every miracle, every sign and wonder is evidence which convinces people of the reality of Jesus. Faith makes direct contact with God and through this contact faith gives perfect soundness in soul, mind and body. If you want perfect soundness and you feel faith rising in your heart, look up to God right now and believe. Remember, it is through faith in the name of Jesus of Nazareth that you will receive perfect soundness.

Thousands of people are being healed and given perfect soundness today. Testimonies pour in every day from people all over the world telling what their faith has done for them. God loves you. He wants to deliver you and give you perfect soundness. God is a good God. Turn your attention to Him and to His love. He can do for you. Develop a sense of expectancy. Expect God to heal you. Your hour of deliverance will come, and when it comes, it is something people can see and feel. They want
